

Sinclair Broadcasting's behavior is dangerous, negligent, and in blatant violation of the laws governing the use of public airwaves, paid for by taxpayers.

The regulations concerning equal coverage of political programming in the time frame approaching an election are explicitly clear, and Sinclair Broadcasting is explicitly violating these regulations.

The FCC is chartered as a nonpartisan arm of the public, and is obligated to enforce our country's laws concerning the use of public airwaves.

Please do the right thing.